Christine Camp

is the president & CEO of Avalon Group, a real estate development and brokerage services firm she founded in 1999. Avalon is currently completing the last phase of the 177-acre Kapolei Business Park in the sales stages of a 269-unit condominium and an apartment property at 7000 Hawaii Kai that it recently completed for $165 million. Avalon's latest project is Sky Ala Moana, a 774 unit mix-use development. In total, Avalon is actively investing over $700 million in real estate developments - all in Hawaii. With over 30 years of industry experience and leadership, Camp has gained recognition as an expert in real estate and finance. In addition to large scale development projects, Avalon manages approximately 1.5 million square foot of commercial space and ~900 residential units. Camp's recent honors include NAIOP Developer of the year, PBN's 40 under 40 Community Leader of the Year, YWCA Woman Leader, and the General Contractors' Legacy Award.

Sponsored by Eddie & Elaine Flores, Jr.

Eddie Flores, Jr. has distinguished himself as a successful entrepreneur, educator, philanthropist, and community leader. He is president and CEO of L&L Drive-Inn/L&L Hawaiian Barbecue and founder of the Eddie Flores Real Estate School and Sun Pacific Realty. In 2007, Eddie and his wife Elaine established a $1 million endowed scholarship at the college which has provided over 220 scholarships to top business students. Eddie helped to establish the Filipino Community Center and Chinatown Community Center, and authored articles and books on real estate and investment. His accomplishments led him to win over 20 local and national awards. A 1970 graduate of the Shidler College of Business, Eddie was inducted into the college's Hall of Honor in 2005 and was honored as a UHAA Distinguished Alumni in 1999. Established in 2017, the annual Real Estate Lecture Series is a testament to Eddie's passion for real estate.
