What causes and enables high profile members of the financial, business, and legal communities to lie, cheat and steal? Join us as a number of knowledgeable professionals from the business, legal, education, medical, political, environmental and athletic communities participate to examine business and legal ethics from the beginning of the decade to today’s ongoing and headline-making ethical conundrums.

Will K. Weinstein, money manager and former partner in two very successful investment banking firms, currently leads a post graduate summer course, “Integrity and Ethics in the Real World,” at the UH Mānoa William S. Richardson School of Law and the Shidler College of Business. This is Weinstein’s fifteenth summer teaching the course, introducing special guest speakers to the university and making this learning opportunity available to the public.
