COURSE DESCRIPTION

Introduction to managerial and financial accounting and methods used to record and report managerial and financial information to decision makers internal and external to the firm.

This course requires considerable time and effort outside of class to prepare for class and to complete required assignments. Take responsibility and speak to me (no emails) if you would like suggestions in regard to preparing for class and/or completing assignments.

COURSE OBJECTIVES and STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After completing this course, students should be able to: understand the role of accounting in investing and management; turn accounting data into information useful in the management process; and apply various accounting techniques and concepts in business decision scenarios. Also, students will learn financial statements, their relationships and how they are used for firms' evaluation through ratio analysis. Furthermore, students will learn job order costing, cost-volume-profit analysis, variable costing, performance evaluation using variances from standard costs, performance evaluation for decentralized operations, product pricing, cost allocation and activity-based costing, and cost management for just-in-time environment.

Student Learning Objectives are posted in Lualima.

PREREQUISITES

Sophomore standing (at least 25 credits). Students who do not meet this prerequisite will be administratively dropped after the drop/add period and will not be eligible for a tuition refund.

REGISTRATION AND WITHDRAWAL DATES

09/03/2019: last day to register and last day to receive 100% tuition refund

09/17/2019: last day to receive 50% tuition refund and last day to drop (No "W" on transcript)

Should you have any questions about your registration, enrollment and/or withdrawing from this class please contact your academic advisor and/or the Undergraduate Office of Student Academic Service ("OSAS"), Shidler College of Business B101.

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY and FOCUS:

The Instructor considers interaction with and among students as being a necessary and vital part in achieving the objectives of this course. The following proverb epitomizes this teaching philosophy:

Tell me, I'll forget; Show me, I may remember; Involve me, I'll understand.

With that in mind, this class will use readings, lectures, in-class practice problems, on-line assignments, projects and examinations to reinforce concepts and to evaluate student mastery of the material. Also, students will have the opportunity to use and apply their analytical, critical-thinking, communications and spreadsheet skills.

TEXTBOOK

Horngrén's Financial & Managerial Accounting, 6th Ed including MyLab Accounting;
Publisher: Pearson; Authors: Miller-Nobles, Tracie | Mattison, Brenda | Matsumura, Ella Mae;
ISBN – please contact the UH Bookstore.

The textbook will be referred to and used extensively throughout the semester; thus, you are expected to obtain an e-book (or printed) copy for this class.

Also, you are expected to register for MyLab Accounting. There you will find your on-line assignments (homework and pre-tests) along with many study aides.

Bookstore's Interactive Digital Access Program ("IDAP")**

This course will be participating in the bookstore's Interactive Digital Access Program ("IDAP"). Through this program, you will access your course material digitally and it will be available to you by the first day of class.

A charge for the digital course material through IDAP will be added to your MyUH account.

You have the option to opt-out of receiving your course material through IDAP. Please contact the UH Bookstore (see below) for the deadline to opt-out. By opting-out, you will lose access to the course material and the charge will be refunded on your MyUH account.

Note: Students may be able to purchase a printed copy of the book for a fee when going through IDAP. Please contact the UH Bookstore (see below) for further information.

If you have any questions about IDAP or this charge to your student account, please contact the UH Bookstore at (808) 956-9645 or email at book@hawaii.edu

IDAP and MyLab Accounting - Instructions to access the course materials through IDAP and MyLab Accounting can be found in Laulima.

Changes may be necessary to enhance learning outcomes as the semester progresses. Updates to the syllabus will be communicated via announcements in class and/or by email.

COURSE COMPLIANCE WITH VARIOUS CAMPUS POLICIES

Student Conduct: It is a privilege to be a member of the UH Manoa community. This privilege provides the student with the opportunity to learn and participate in the many programs that are offered on campus. Along with that privilege, the individual is expected to be responsible in relationships with others and to respect the special interests of the institution. These special interests are fully set forth in the UH System's Student Conduct Code. Information, advice, or a copy of the code may be obtained from the Office of Judicial Affairs, Queen Lili'uokalani Center for Student Services 207 or explore www.studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct_code/.

Academic Honesty: Students are expected to behave with integrity in all academic endeavors. Cheating, plagiarism, as well as any other form of academic dishonesty, will not be tolerated. All incidents will be handled in accordance with the UH Student Code of Conduct. The UH Student Code of Conduct, is available at: http://www.studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct_code/. Please become very familiar with the University Student Conduct Code so you can make conscience and informed choices about your behavior. Some relevant portions of the code are included below for your convenience.

Acts of dishonesty, types of behavior that conflict with the community standards that the UH values and expects of students, include but are not limited to the following:

- a. cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty,
- b. furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office,
- c. forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.

The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff or student (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.

The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

In addition to the above, the instructor specifically prohibits the following behaviors, and includes them within the definition of academic dishonesty: (1) providing another student with any form of direct or indirect, unauthorized assistance on any assignment, quiz, test or exam; and (2) copying, or recording in any manner, test or exam questions or answers.

Please NOTE: UH disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and this Student Conduct Code (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution.

If a student is caught committing an act of Academic Dishonesty, as defined in the University Student Conduct Code, they will receive a grade of "F" for the course and be referred for disciplinary action as provided for by the University Student Conduct Code.
