David Matlin, MBA '97, has been the director of athletics at UHM since 2015. Under his leadership, the UH Athletics complex went through a $35 million facility upgrade, academic and graduation rates of student-athletes increased steadily to an all-time high and three UH teams posted top five national finishes, earning coaches national recognitions. In all, seven coaches earned conference Coach of the Year awards and two received national Coach of the Year awards. Prior to UH, Matlin gained 20 years of sports management experience, including 13 years with ESPN, seven as executive director managing the Hawai'i Bowl football games and the Diamond Head Classic basketball tournament.
