EMILY REBER PORTER has served as Chief Operating Officer at MacNaughton since 2015. Her leadership has guided investments across Oahu, the Big Island and U.S. mainland, spanning development, acquisition and operation. Notable projects include Park Lane Ala Moana, Kapolei Commons, and various Waikiki hotels. She began her career as a corporate litigator in Honolulu and Washington D.C., then transitioned to general counsel and business executive in a tech company in San Francisco before returning home.

Porter’s commitment to her community runs deep, rooted in her family’s long history in Hawai’i, and supported by her education at Punahou School, Princeton University, and Harvard Law School. Beyond MacNaughton, Porter serves on multiple boards, including the Shidler College of Business Advisory Council. She has received numerous recognitions including Omidyar Fellow, Woman of Distinction by Girl Scouts Hawaii, and Outstanding Mother by the American Lung Association of Hawaii.

Sponsored by Eddie & Elaine Flores, Jr.

Eddie Flores, Jr. has distinguished himself as a successful entrepreneur, educator, philanthropist, and community leader. He is chairman of L&L Drive-Inn/L&L Hawaiian Barbecue and founder of the Eddie Flores Real Estate School and Sun Pacific Realty. In 2007, Eddie and his wife Elaine established a $2 million endowed scholarship at the college which has provided over 220 scholarships to top business students. Eddie helped to establish the Filipino Community Center and Chinatown Community Center, and authored articles and books on real estate and investment. His accomplishments led him to win over 20 local and national awards. A 1970 graduate of the Shidler College of Business, Eddie was inducted into the college’s Hall of Honor in 2005 and was honored as a UHAA Distinguished Alumni in 1999. Established in 2017, the annual Real Estate Lecture Series is a testament to Eddie’s passion for real estate.
