Course Description

ACC 200 Introduction to Accounting I covers managerial accounting. Managerial accounting is designed to provide information to meet the specific needs of a company's management. This information includes both historical data and estimated data. It helps managers make decisions concerning a business's daily operations and future planning. It is the attention-directing and problem-solving functions of accounting in relation to current planning and control, evaluation of performance, special decisions, and long-range planning.

Course Objectives

The objective of this course is to provide students with basic knowledge and understanding of managerial accounting concepts. After completing this course, students should have the ability to utilize accounting data to solve common business management problems and understand the impact of decisions on financial statements. This course will also help you be successful in the business world by learning to interpret a company's internal financial and non-financial data.

Required Materials

(1) Financial and Managerial Accounting Information for Decisions, 9th Edition, John J. Wild and Ken W. Shaw, 2022, McGraw Hill. Interactive Digital Access Program (IDAP) edition (Required)

(2) CONNECT web access is required for this course (registration instructions will be posted on Lulima). All homework assignments are conducted via CONNECT.

UH Bookstore IDAP: Through IDAP, students will be able to get access to the eText on Lulima, and complete homework in CONNECT. Paying for IDAP via your student account is the most economical way of obtaining the eText and getting access to CONNECT.

Grading Criteria

Summary of grading components and grade scale:

Exam 1	100 points
Exam 2	100 points
Exam 3	100 points
Homework presentation	10 points
Online Homework	70 points (via CONNECT)
Class participation	20 points
Total	400 points

If a student has questions regarding grading, please discuss with the professor.

Exams: The exams include materials covered in lecture AND in the textbook. You are responsible for both sources of information. Exams are closed book and closed notes. The professor may conduct exams via Lulima or the publisher's web service when the class is taught online. Only strictly calculators are allowed during exams. That is, other electronic devices such as cell phones are not allowed. You cannot share calculators during exams. The exam proctors may check photo I.D. during the exam, so you need to bring a photo I.D. to the exam. An exam should never leave the classroom. A removal of the exam from the classroom will lead to a failure for the course.

There will be three exams given during the semester and the final exam period. Make-up exams will be given only under rare circumstances, and the professor reserves the right to deduct points as deemed appropriate. Makeup exams will be provided only for students notifying the professor prior to the exam with legitimate reasons such as written medical excuses. Failure to notify the professor on a timely basis will result in "0" for the exam.

Documents supporting the request for a make-up exam should make the professor look smart when questioned why a make-up exam is granted to the student. For example, an email to the professor stating one is sick or a simple visit to a doctor's office is not enough to prove that one is indeed sick; instead, the doctor's note should state that the student's illness would prevent the student from performing normally on the exam (or a similar statement).

Online Homework: A prominent accounting educator once said: "Learning accounting has three key elements: practice, practice, and practice." The class will assign a large amount of homework in the form of online homework. Each chapter has a homework and the homework will be graded by CONNECT. CONNECT is an online learning platform designed and maintained by the publisher of the textbook. The homework consists of multiple-choice questions, short exercises, and lengthy problems. Some homework may take about 2 hours to complete, some may take more than 10 hours. Each homework has a deadline and will not be extended. There will be 11 homework throughout the semester. Your lowest score on the homework will be dropped. In CONNECT, you have three attempts to answer each homework question. As long as one of the attempts is correct, the system will count your answer as correct. At the end of the semester, your overall percentage of correctness on the homework will be converted into a 70-point scale. For example, if you are 90% correct on these homework assignments, your overall homework score will be $90\% \times 70 = 63$; and 63 will be counted as your homework score toward your final grade.

Supplemental Homework: Supplemental homework assignments are the selected end-of-chapter questions for each chapter and will not be collected or graded. These assignments provide additional practice of the concepts and methods in the textbook. Some of these assignments may be discussed in class. The supplemental homework assignments are similar to the homework questions, so the students are encouraged to complete those assignments first before working on the homework.

Homework Presentation

Students are required to present homework solutions once during the semester. The presenter may face questions from the professor and other students in the classroom, so it is very important for the student to demonstrate his/her understanding of the problem, relevant concepts and solution.

Class Attendance and Participation

Students should treat this class as a highly valued job and attend class regularly. Class participation is a very important element of the course. Class participation will be considered in determining the final grade for the semester. Attendance will be taken regularly.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner. That is, students are expected to be on time, and are expected to respect the ideas and opinions of other students. Please note specifically that disruptive behavior, for example conducting side conversations in class, arriving late, and leaving early, will not be tolerated. The professor reserves the right to reduce a student's course grade due to consistent behavior problem.

Preparation for Class

Text reading assignments should be completed by the first day we cover a chapter. In depth reading for conceptual understanding is required. Because all material cannot be covered in class, you are responsible for ensuring your understanding of assigned topics by reading the material and doing the homework. The assigned exercises and problems are to be solved before they are reviewed in class. In order to pass this course, all homework assignments should be completed.

Academic Honesty

Students are expected to behave with integrity in all academic endeavors. Cheating, plagiarism, as well as any other form of academic dishonesty, will not be tolerated. All incidents will be handled in accordance with the UH Student Code of Conduct. The UH Student Code of Conduct, is available at: http://www.studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct_code/. Please become very familiar with the University Student Conduct Code so you can make conscientious and informed choices about your behavior. Some relevant portions of the code are included below for your convenience.

“Acts of dishonesty, types of behavior that conflict with the community standards that the UH values and expects of students, include but are not limited to the following:

- a. cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty,
- b. furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office,
- c. forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.

The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the professor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff or student (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.

It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.” In addition to the above, the professor specifically prohibits the following behaviors, and includes them within the definition of academic dishonesty: (1) providing another student with any form of direct or indirect, unauthorized assistance on any assignment, quiz, test or exam; and (2) copying, or recording in any manner, test or exam questions or answers.

Please note:

UH disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and this Student Conduct Code (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution.

If a student is caught committing an act of Academic Dishonesty, as defined in the University Student Conduct Code, they will receive a grade of “F” for the course and be referred for disciplinary action as provided for by the University Student Conduct Code.
