JULY 23

MEDICAL ETHICS

6:00 - 7:30 P.M. » 1.5 CLE CREDITS

WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON SCHOOL OF LAW, CADES SCHUTTE CLASSROOM (CLASSROOM 2)

Register at shidler.hawaii.edu/weinstein | Free Admission | $7 parking after 4 p.m. on campus
Licensed attorneys are eligible for continuing legal education (CLE) credits.

How does the medical community strive to behave ethically while under pressure to maintain profitability? Is healthcare a right or a privilege? How does our health care system compare to those in other countries? How do we explain why our overall performance ranks so poorly? What are the best and worst aspects of our current system? Leaders from differing perspectives will discuss balancing “First, do no harm,” with conducting the business of medicine.

Will K. Weinstein, money manager and former partner in two very successful investment banking firms, currently leads a summer course, “Integrity and Ethics in the Real World,” at the UH Mānoa William S. Richardson School of Law and the Shidler College of Business. This is Weinstein’s sixteenth summer teaching the course, introducing special guest speakers to the university and making this learning opportunity available to the public.
